Bids To Be Sought For New Church

A committee of the Board of Regents in session recently at Barium Springs approved the final plans for the new church building and instructed the architect to prepare the specifications at once in order that the contractors might have the blue prints and specifications in hand for bidding.

The new church to be located at the north end of the campus will be of colonial architecture with a tall spire rising into the sky. In addition to the sanctuary which will seat over four hundred people, there will be rooms for the choir and for the minister's study. Also, there will be space provided for a combination assembly-dining room which can be used by the men and women of the church for supper meetings or for the Youth Fellowship or for any formal or informal groups, ranging in number from 10 to 120. Kitchen facilities will be a part of this unit.

The committee hopes that the ground-breaking ceremony can be held not later than the last of March and that soon thereafter the walls of this building may begin to rise from the ground. Plans for the church furniture will be made at the next meeting of the committee. The organ has already been provided for and it is the intent of the committee to carry out the mind of the donor in installing an organ adequate to afford the beauty of music in the worship services of the church.

Glee Club To Visit Churches

The Barium High School Glee Club under the direction of Miss Catherine Edgerton is making plans for visits to some of the churches in the early Spring. This group, numbering about forty, made several trips in the Fall and now has accepted invitations for the Spring. Invitations for them to sing at Church services or at group meetings of the Church should be sent in early in order that arrangements can be completed. Mrs. Martha Kirby has been assisting Miss Edgerton in the work with the Glee Club and, although this is their first year at Barium Springs, the group recognizes the excellence of leadership in these two persons and has responded well to their training.

Southeastern To Meet In Charlotte

The Southeastern Conference for child-caring institutions will be held in Charlotte March 22nd,23, and 24th. The secretary of the Conference, Miss Mary Bruce Roberts, has announced the holding of institutes for houseparents and conference sessions for administrative heads and case workers. All of the sessions will be held in the Charlotte Hotel and the president, Mr. Philip Corey of the Bethesda Home for Boys in Savannah, Ga., will be the presiding officer.

Barium is planning to have a large representation present for these institutes and discussion programs in this annual Spring meeting.

Sides Accepts Harrisburg Call

Reverend Charles H. Sides, Jr., pastor of Little Joe's Presbyterian Church, has accepted a call to the Harrisburg Presbyterian Church. The congregation concurred with the minister in requesting Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship in order that he might take up his new work on February 25th.

Mr. Sides was in his sixth year as minister at Barium, having come to the campus September 1st, 1948. Soon after taking up his work in the Barium community, the minister brought to the manse his new bride, the former Miss Virginia Smith, whose home was in Monroe, N. C. Mrs. Sides has joined with her husband in the service to the church and to the community, having been Circle chairman for the last two years.

The minister feels that the work at Harrisburg offers a particular challenge, with a lovely new sanctuary and a fine new educational building affording opportunity for continued growth in this field.

As Mr. and Mrs. Sides and Charles Hobart Sides, III, take up residence in the new manse, all of Barium Springs will be wishing them great happiness in service and praying for God's blessing to rest upon them in their home and in their new work.

Special Services Mark Youth Week

Special services were planned by the Senior High Fellowship Council and carried out during Youth Week. Reverend Fred R. Stair, Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Hickory, was the guest minister. Mr. Stair came to the campus and spoke to the Senior High Fellowship at the Vesper Service on Sunday evening and afterwards met informally with the Council. Then, at the three Chapel services on the three days following Mr. Stair spoke to the members of the student body from the eighth grade through the senior class, challenging them to a full commitment to Jesus Christ and Christian living upon the campus. The Council is enthusiastic in its work and is laying plans for a good year's work in the Senior High Fellowship.

Contract Let For Sewage Plant

Contract has been let to the Gilbert Engineering Company for the erection of a new sewage disposal plant. This contract calls for the erection of a new IMHOFF Tank with the complete renovation of the sand beds and distribution system in it. For more than three years the Health Department has been patient with the Home in regard to the disposal system. The State engineer had declared that the present system was only half large enough and was totally ineffective in doing what was supposed to be done. The new system approved by the State Board of Health will be the same type used in the small towns with great satisfaction and effectiveness. This work will take about two months to complete and will cost about $12,000.00.

Synod's Workers Conduct Survey

Dr. J. O. Mann, director of Christian Education in the Synod of North Carolina, accepted the invitation of the Church and the Home to make a survey study of Christian Education in the Church and in the cottages on the campus. Three of the area workers of the Synod, Miss Sara McNeill, Mrs. Robert Stilwell, and Miss Anne McMichael, together with Dr. Mann, spent five days on the campus with the workers and children in exploring the work. Working together with the teachers of the Church School, many decisions were reached for effecting some changes that would enable the teachers to do a more satifactory piece of work. Long range planning was also afford-

S H F Forms New Council

The Senior High Fellowship of Little Joe's Presbyterian Church elected Leroy Norman as president, Mary Emma McClure as secretary, and Phoebe Cochran as treasurer. These elected officers, together with the Reverend Charles H. Sides, Jr., selected the six other members of the group to complete the Council. These are: Program Chairman, Delores Ramsey; Faith Commission Chairman, Joyce Kelly; Witness

COTTAGE NEWS

Annie Louise

Dear Friends.

We are back again to bring the glad tidings of Annie Louise cottage.

We have had a lot of snow in the past few months and we were busy making snow men all over the place. We got the biggest kick out of throwing snow balls at each other.

This past week we got to go to two movies, and we were tickled to death because we went. We saw a double feature, "Never Wave At A Wac", and "Lassie of the Painted Hills." Monday we saw "Calamity Jane," and it was very funny.

The last report cards that we got ten of us made the honor roll, and we are very proud that both of our big girls got on it too. We are looking forward to our next report cards and hope we have more on the honor roll. We have hinted for a party and hope Mrs. Gentry will give us one for making the honor roll.

We are now looking forward to the coming of Spring and the pretty Robins singing out side of our window, but we were told when the ground hog comes out and sees his shadow we are going to have more cold weather, and that looks like what we are going to have.

There is another great event we are looking forward to and that is February 14, Valentine Day. We are busy making Valentines to send to every one.

Since we didn't get our news in last time we want to thank everyone for the nice things you sent us. We are very grateful for every thing you did for us.

We'll see you again.

Howard Cottage

This is the Howard Cottage girls telling you what has happened to us this month.

Last Tuesday we went to the Playhouse in Statesville and saw a double feature, we saw "Texas Carnival" and "Branded", and Thursday we saw "The Painted Hills", and "Never Wave At A Wac".

Friday, the fifth grade gave a program and had the devotional, some fables, folk songs, a speaking choir, and how a bill become a law.

Well that is all for this month. We will see you next month.

—Faye Hicks.

Synod Cottage

Dear Friends,

Here we are back again with some more cottage news. We went to see two double feature shows last week, they were ""Texas Carnival" and "Branded" the other one was "Lassie In the Painted Hills" and "Never Wave At A Wac".

We have had three snows here this year but the third one did not stick. All the little boys were real disappointed. When we had the first snow we could hardly get the little boys in the house to get them ready for supper. After supper Miss Ferguson made all the little boys some snow cream.

Guess that is all the news, we will be seeing you in the next cottage news.

—Peggy Sellers

Quads

Well, we had our snow! Two snows in fact, and no one on the campus had more fun than we did. The hill by the spring stayed slick for several days, fine for sledding. And the first soft snow was just right for snow balls and snow men. Best of all we had time off from work. The orchard boys could not set out trees and the farm boys couldn't haul fertilizer. Mr. Ervin and Mr. White let their groups off, too, for the fun.

Basketball has kept us busy. Practice in the gym fills the evenings. Our Junior team has lost no games so far.

Two new boys, William (Buddy) Ayers and Tommy Finley have recently joined us. Their cheerful eagerness to enter into all activities has already made them valued members of our family.

At snack time, during the evening, all other activities are suspended while a sandwich is eaten and glasses filled with tea or koolaid. Since Christmas, there's often a bit of candy. Our Durham friends often help us to have "extras".

Again we are looking forward to a trip to Mooresville as the guests of the Business Women's Circle of the First church. They always give us a wonderful time.

Last semester we had six boys on the honor roll. And as a special treat Calvin Burleson, Neil Shaw, David Morrison, Mirton Cox, and Boyce Dean Smith went with Miss Miller, Miss Ferguson and Mrs. Ramsay to Statesville for dinner.

There's another addition to our South campus. Mr. Stinson's group brought four beautiful water oaks from the woods and set them out. Some of these days there will be shade.

We had hoped to report that Clayton Miller would be available for concerts, but he feels that he needs more time to get aquainted with his guitar. However, Woodie Smith has his bicycle horn well in hand. And Charles Creech is keeping his voice exercised.

Still we miss Cap!

Rumple Hall

Hi Folks,

The last time you heard from us we were getting ready for Junior Basketball. We've played two games and won both of them. Most of us are on the team. The Eighth graders got to go to the varsity game in Statesville Friday night. Barium and Statesville were playing. The girls won by 68-66. It was really a good game. It was the first time Statesville girls have been beaten in three years. We went to the show last Thursday night to see, "The All American," with Tony Curtis and Lori Nelson.

One of our girls, Betty Ruth Anderson, has gone home. We sure do miss her, she was one of our best guards on the Junior basketball team.

We have a guest minister with us this week. He will be here until Wednesday, his name is Mr. Fred Stair of Hickory.

So long until next month.

—Shelby McEwen
Janet Woodall.

Infirmary

Hi There,

It looks as if Mr. Groundhog has smiled on us this month, for we are having beautiful, but cold weather, sure hope it lasts.

To make certain that we are in good physical condition, our doctors came last month to check us. I don't think any serious illness was found. So far this winter we have had very few patients here at the Infirmary. Maybe we will be able to avoid a flu epidemic.

Last week the Junior class girls bought their evening dresses, they are really very beautiful and we can hardly wait for a chance to wear them.

Our basketball games are coming along fine. The varsity girls take top place in our conference and although our varsity boys aren't up there, they played one of the best games I have ever seen this past week. Junior team girls and boys are making good, too.

One of the most enjoyable events in the past week was the visit of Rev. Fred Stair of Hickory, N. C. He brought us messages in four services during Youth Week. Everyone enjoyed him, especially the young people.

One of our saddest regrets is the approaching departure of our minister, Rev. Charles H. Sides. He has done great work in our church and increased Youth Work tremendously. Rev. Sides will be missed in the hearts of everyone.

Goodbye until next month.

Three Hundred Served At Scout Banquet

The annual Father and Son banquet held in observance of Boy Scout Week brought three hundred fathers and sons to the Rumple Hall dining room.

The program was marked by candlelight ceremonies by members of the Statesville Boy Scout Troop 8 and an address by Mr. J. P. Walther, Iredell County Hospital administrator and former Charlotte scout leader.

One of the highlights of the banquet as far as the Barium Springs boys and girls were concerned was the visit of Charlie Justice, North Carolina University and Washington Redskins football star. The All-American football player and hero of so many people was gracious in manner in visiting the cottages and chatting with the boys and girls. Mr. Neil Justice of Biltmore Dairy firm graciously consented to come to the campus a little early and stay later in order that he and his brother, Choo-Choo, might visit and talk with the Barium boys and girls.

ton - $4,702.46, Winston-Salem $4,399.15.

This makes a total of $92,-243.62. Since the fiscal year of the Home ends March 31st, the regular gifts of the churches made during the nine months of 1953 have not yet been analyzed and summarized. It now appears that the receipts of the Home from the churches for the nine months, April 1st through December 31st, will run about the same as three-fourths of the last previous twelve months giving.

A complete picture of the financial year is available only after the auditors have surveyed the total accounting for the full year and made their report. Copies of this report are always placed in the hands of the Synod of North Carolina and then filed with the Stated Clerk in Synod's Office.

The business office at Barium Spring is glad to answer question concerning gifts and finances and the books of the Home are always available for persons who wish to inform themselves of the finances of the Home.

23rd Annual Tourney Here February 18th

The twenty-third running of the annual Mid-Piedmont basketball tournament is a February sporting event at Barium Springs.

Under the direction of the principal of the school, Mr. R. G. Calhoun, assisted by the coaches and members of the staff, this tournament holds a high spot in the mid-winter sports for Barium and surrounding communities. For nearly a quarter of a century high school students have been participating in clean sportsmanship and fine demonstration of good basketball on the Barium court. This year offers no exception to the standards and many thrills await those who are going to participate in this annual event.

The high flying Scotts Black Panthers, riding the crest of the district race, drew the only bye in the tourney.

Three games are set to get things underway with Troutman and Harmony, the seventh and eighth place teams, starting the tip-off at 5:30.

Stony Point will meet Central at 7 o'clock and Celeste Henkel will meet Hiddenite at 8:30 to round out the night's card.

Union Grove will tangle with Cool Spring at 7 o'clock on Friday with Scotts playing the winner of the Troutman - Harmony contest at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

Semi-finals will be played Saturday night with the final

A woman, explaining a traffic crash to a policeman, concluded:

". . . and then I very clearly signaled that I had changed my mind."

Once a city man, out of work, had "hired out" to a farmer. At four o'clock in the morning the newly employed hired man was called to breakfast. A few minutes later the old farmer was astonished to see the man walking down the road.

"Say! Come back and eat your breakfast 'for you go to work!" he yelled after him.

"I aint goin to work," the man called back. "I'm goin' to find a place where I can stay all night."

A city boy, visiting his country cousin, was walking through a pasture when he heard a buzzing sound.

Cousin: "Come away from there! It's a rattlesnake. If you go near it, it will strike!"

City Boy: "Do they have unions, too"?

It was during the impaneling of a jury the following colloquy occurred. "You are a property-holder?"

"Yes, your Honor."

"Married or single?"

"I have been married for five years, your Honor."

"Have you formed or expressed any opinion?"

"Not for five years, your Honor."

A young Swede appeared in the county judge's office and asked for a license.

"What kind of license?" asked the judge. "A hunting license?"

"No," was the answer. "Aye tanke aye bane hunting long enough. Aye want a marriage license."

A tourist traveling through the Texas panhandle got into conversation with an old settler and his son at a filling station.

"Looks as though we might have rain," said the tourist.

"Well, I hope so", replied the native, "not so much for myself as for my boy here. I've seen it rain."

This joke really took place in a courtroom. The witness, a woman, was being cross-examined by the attorney for the defense. He was having difficulty making her answer yes or no. She was going on at great length, explaining just how things happened.

Finally the judge, a very stern old gentleman, said, "Madam, answer yes or no, as the lawyer commands."

She straightened right up and looked him square in the eye and said: "Who are you, and will you mind your own business? I wasn't talking to you at all!"
